About MATS: Decades of Serving People Who Are Homeless

Founded in 1991 by concerned citizens, the Monadnock Area Transitional Shelter (MATS) is a transitional shelter for individuals and families who are homeless.

MATS is run by volunteers from local communities and a full-time Program Manager. MATS serves the towns of the Greater Monadnock Region. We also accept referrals from other shelters throughout the tri-state area. MATS is a transitional shelter not an emergency shelter.

We offer our guests assistance with finding agency and community resources and with transportation, health, childcare, legal, housing and employment issues, as well as guidance in reaching goals.

As a 501(c)3 organization, we are grateful for the many caring and generous people in the Monadnock region. We receive no money from state or federal governments but rely on donations from citizens, clubs, service groups, businesses, churches and grants.
